Death Claims John A. M'Call

Former Insurance President Peacefully Passes Away.—Worried About Business

Collapsed at the Close of the Legislative Inquiry and Failed to Rally—Compelled to part With His Handsome Country Place—An Eventful Career.

New York, Feb. 16.—After an illness of several months, John A. McCall, formerly president of the New York Life Insurance company, is dead. He passed away Sunday evening at Lakewood, N. J., where he had been taken three weeks ago in the hope that the change might benefit his health. Mr. McCall's breakdown occurred about the close of the investigation of life insurance affairs in this state by the legislative committee December last. The report of the committee is expected to be submitted to the legislature at Albany early this week. Mr. McCall's examination before the committee was a severe one, and the ordeal he underwent in rehearsing in detail the affairs of the company and in divulging transactions about which the general public was ignorant, worried him greatly, it was said. McCall was ill in bed at his home in this city when he affixed his signature to his letter of resignation from the presidency of the New York Life. About three weeks ago his condition became such that his physicians and family deemed it advisable to remove him to Lakewood. During all this time Mr. McCall worried constantly about his business affairs. He was compelled first to mortgage and then to sell his handsome country place at Long Branch, N. J., in order, it was stated, to repay to the New York Life Insurance company $235,000 on the Andrew Hamilton account, Mr. Hamilton, the legislative agent of the company, having made no accounting for this sum.

It was announced that Mr. McCall's death was due to enlargement of the liver, and the end had been peaceful and without pain. Mrs. McCall is now under medical care. She had become worn out by the long vigil at the bedside of her husband, and when he died she practically collapsed. Seven children survive.

John A. McCall was born in Albany, N. Y., March 2, 1849. He entered the insurance business early in life and in 1885 was appointed state insurance commissioner by Grover Cleveland, who was then governor. He relinquished that position to become comptroller of the Equitable Life Assurance society, which position he held until he became president of the New York Life Insurance company in 1892.

Alleged Cruelties at [illegible].

Washington, Feb. 19.— [illegible] committee composed of Dr. Charles M. [illegible]mons and Attorney Richard P. [illegible]ans appointed by the Medico-Legal society of the District of Columbia to investigate the condition of affairs at St. Elizabeth's government asylum for the insane, located near this city, have made a report to the society, in which serious statements are made regarding the management. A copy of the report will be sent to the president, and it is said that the grand jury may be called on to make an investigation. The committee says it would appear from complaints made to the committee that straight-jackets, handcuffs, etc., are in frequent use; that the "feeding tube" has been upon occasions thrust through the nostrils down the throat as a method of punishment and discipline, as well as of alleged necessity.

SNOW

Was Soon Disposed Of

And Traffic Suffered But Trifling Inconvenience.

RAILROADS SEE BUSY TIMES AHEAD FOR SEVERAL MONTHS IN TRANSPORTATION OF FREIGHT.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—The storms of the last few days have to some extent delayed traffic on the Western roads, but not to so great an extent as expected. This is because the snowfall has been restricted to sections or localities and was not accompanied by extreme cold. The Northwest suffered more than elsewhere, although Chicago received its first big snow of the season. Reports of blockades were exaggerated extensively, and where trains were late on account of the storms the condition was speedily overcome. The heavy storm at Chicago and contiguous territory was preceded by heavy winds and cold, and although the fall was very heavy, it was of a light-weight variety and caused the railroads little trouble. Railroad officials feel more encouraged over the outlook for winter wheat since the recent fall of snow, although the Southwest failed to get as much as desired. The volume of traffic handled by the various lines is as heavy as ever, and as yet shows no signs of falling off. There appears to be the same confident business feeling which has existed so long. Merchants in the interior are showing no great hesitation and are buying freely of nearly everything.

LAID TO REST

Were the Remains of King Christian of Denmark.

Roskilde, Denmark, Feb. 19.—In the magnificent old Gothic church here the body of King Christian IX., amid the thunder of guns, the sonorous tones of the organ and the blare of trumpets, was laid to rest with the long line of his predecessors on the Danish throne, whose remains repose in the chapel in Roskilde's redstone fane. Emperor William of Germany was present. The choir was filled with members of the clergy, whose quaint black gowns and white ruffs formed a striking background to the blaze of gold lace uniforms of the diplomatic body occupying the corner of the choir. Here Mr. O'Brien, the American minister, in simple evening dress, was a remarkable exception. As Mr. O'Brien was personally representing President Roosevelt, the Danish government had given him an attache of honor, M. Scavenius, of the foreign office.

ONLY

A Small Gap To Be Built To Complete

THE TROLLEY SYSTEM FROM DETROIT TO INDIANAPOLIS VIA CELINA AND MUNCIE.

It Is Given Out That This Section of New Track Will be Finished by the Middle of the Summer.

Now that the Portland and Muncie electric line is completed from Portland to Muncie that company is busy taking up right of way between Celina and Portland, which will practically close up the gap between Indianapolis and Detroit, via this city.

It has been stated in the press that the Western Ohio people were to build the connecting link between Celina and Portland, but this is a mistake, as that company is simply assisting in the taking up of the right of way.

In conversation with an official of the Western Ohio this morning he stated that the gap between Portland and Celina would be closed up by the middle of the summer at which time through service would be started between Detroit and Indianapolis via. Lima.

Parry on Chinese.

Indianapolis, Feb. 19.—D. M. Parry, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, said that the board of directors of the organization have adopted resolutions on the Chinese exclusion subject, as prepared by a special committee of eight. These resolutions state it is deemed inexpedient under present conditions to attempt to enter into a treaty with China as to immigration, and call upon congress to adopt legislation as shall correct present evils and restore friendly relations with China. "Organized labor," said Mr. Parry, "has much to answer for in the present deplorable condition of our relations with China. Our government, yielding to labor agitators, has not only violated treaty obligations with China in the past but has also for years, through its immigration department, given an administration of the exclusion laws that is a disgrace to a civilized nation."

Eight-Hour Day For All Miners

Mitchell and His Associates Will Make a Firm Demand.—Formulate Their Report.

Result of the New York Conference to Be Submitted to a Convention of the Three Big Anthracite Districts—Dolan Again Attacks President of Mine Workers.

New York, Feb. 19.—John Mitchell and his associates on the anthracite miners' sub-committee finished their work of preparing proposals for an agreement, and will probably meet with the coal operators' sub-committee Tuesday or Wednesday. It was stated that no formal document would be submitted, but that the miners would notify the operators that they were ready for a joint meeting of the sub-committees, and would then state in general terms what they expected the operators to grant them in the new agreement. It is expected that several meetings will take place before a final agreement or disagreement will be reached.

It is practically certain that the miners will make a firm demand for the eight-hour day for all men employed about the mines. One of the miners' representatives said that the eight hour question was more important to the men than any other demand that had been mentioned.

If at the meeting with the operators this week no agreement should be reached, the miners would have to go back to Pennsylvania and the whole matter would be submitted to a tri-district convention; that being a convention of the three big anthracite districts which control the entire coal field. No matter what may be the result of the conference here, it will have to be ratified by the convention to be called in Pennsylvania. The present agreement between the operators and miners does not expire until March 31, so that in case of a disagreement in the conference committee in New York, the miners will have five weeks to consider what course they will take, and to make preparations if they decide to strike.

Dolan Attacks Mitchell.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 19.—In a statement he made public, President Dolan of the local district, United Mine Workers of America, scores the methods of John Mitchell, national president of the mine workers, and charges him with trying to shirk the responsibility for the position in which the mine workers are at present. Dolan also accuses Mitchell of "playing to the galleries" by threatening the operators with a national strike, but that the operators "called the bluff." Mitchell is further charged with sending organizers into the local field to defeat Dolan, and that money belonging to the organization was used.

Substance Of Hepburn Bill

President Roosevelt Believes That it Should Be Preserved.--Not Worrying About Form

Senators Dick and Foraker Participate in the Statehood Discussion—Latter's Amendment Commands Attention—Forecast of the Week in the House and Senate.

Washington, Feb 19—President Roosevelt, in recent talks with senators and representatives, has stated that while he is not attempting to dictate the terminology of the railroad rate bill, his preference is that the substance of the Hepburn bill should be kept. He has taken occasion to say that he cares very little for the form of the bill if the "essence" is kept There are two or three minor points as to which he thinks amendments may possibly be made with advantage, as, for instance, instead of making a thirty-day limit for the time when a regulation is to take effect, to make it go into effect at any time set by the interstate commerce commission

The house will dispose of one of the regular annual supply measures—the army appropriation bill—this week Chairman Hull, of the military affairs committee, expects to call up the bill Tuesday. He estimates that it will be Thursday or even Friday before the measure is finally disposed of. The general debate on the bill will occupy Tuesday and at least a part of Wednesday. Procedure under the five-minute rule will not be curtailed and a day or more will be consumed in scrutinizing the details of the bill under this order The provision of the bill abolishing the grade of lieutenant general of the army will be the text of a number of speeches.

The program of the senate the present week calls for the final consideration of the pure food bill, and the continuance of the discussion of the statehood bill, which was begun last Thursday by Senator Dick. The vote on the pure food bill will be taken Wednesday Senator Dick continued his speech Monday in support of the statehood bill All interest centers in Senator Foraker's provision, giving both territories an opportunity to vote separately on the question of joint statehood for New Mexico and Arizona, and it is not at all improbable that that point may be quite suddenly reached The acceptance of the amendment would not have the effect of bringing the discussion of the measure to a close because there are other questions on which the senate is divided, but it would materially curtail it and in the end insure the passage of the bill

INDICTMENTS

Against Officials Likely in Connection With Indiana Frauds.

Washington, Feb. 19—President Roosevelt has taken personal interest in the charges of fraud and corruption which are said to have occurred in connection with the affairs of the five civilized tribes in the Indian territory But for his intervention indictments against several parties alleged to have been engaged in illegal practices would have been quashed Now, however, under his orders the interior department is pushing its investigations with increased vigor, and it is reliably stated that in the near future a number of new indictments will be reached against not only several men already indicted, but they will also include a number of persons whose names have not heretofore been brought into the cases, including a high government official in Washington

Of Two Most Noted Drivers.

SCOTT HUDSON AND MARK DEMAREST TALK OVER THE LOU DILLON-MAJOR DELMAR TURF SCANDAL.

New Orleans, La, February 19.—Mark Demarest and Scott Hudson, the trotting drivers, are here, and are showing a keen interest in the charges made by Murray Howe that Lou Dillon was tampered with prior to her defeat by Major Delmar in the now notorious gold cup race at Memphis. Both men think Howe's charges absurd, and they point to Howe's admission in his Thursday interview in New York that the mare was suffering from the thumps at the time of the race as sufficient excuse for her defeat by Major Delmar. "Why," said Demarest, "the way they talk one would imagine that Major Delmar was a two-dollar horse He is as great a trotter as I ever saw, and was undoubtedly superior to Lou Dillon in courage though perhaps, she has him beaten as to speed But there was no great difference between them A week before the race Major Delmar trotted a mile against the wind at Lexington in 2 01¾, about as good a mile as I ever saw trotted Lou Dillon was a delicate, fussy sort of a mare, and one that would not stand a great deal of campaigning, and she had a very hard preparation for the gold cup race—a little too hard I thought She did not seem to be at her best, while Major Delmar was at the very top of his speed.

Scott Hudson, who stood listening while Demarest was talking, corroborated what he had to say. In referring to the mare's courage Hudson said

I doubt that Lou Dillon is a really game horse I drove the runner against both her and Major Delmar all last season and always forced the pace with the latter, but when driving against the mayor Millard Sanders would always tell me to "take back" if I caught up to her. When the runner would come alongside she would get excited and would not buckle down to harder work to get away as was the case with the Major In the gold cup race Major Delmar had the pole and went away with the mare from the start and carried her a fast half. When she moved up to him at this stage Major drew away again and it looked to me as though the mare did not have the heart to try again, and seeing he was beaten Mr. Billings then eased her up Millard Sanders was standing by me while all this was happening and he said as soon as he saw Major Delmar take the lead, 'Why, I told Mr Billings to go right to the front with that mare.' I said to him that it was all right to tell Mr Billings that, but maybe he can't; that's a pretty speedy horse she is racing against, he can trot a quarter himself in 0 29, but it showed that Sanders had begun to doubt the mare's courage and thought the way to drive her at her very best was to keep her in front from the start. I think Major Delmar carried her so fast he simply made her stop'

MILLIONS CLEARED ON BIG OIL LANDS

West Virginians Reported To Have Sold Indian Territory Holdings at Big Profit.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Feb. 19.—Through the close business and personal friends of J. Scott Glen, of Parkersburg, who is associated with T. N. Barnsdall, the millionaire oil operator of Pennsylvania, in his extensive oil holdings in the Indian Territory (who has been living there for several years), it is learned that the syndicate headed by Mr. Barnsdall has sold out its Indian Territory holdings to parties in Pittsburg, whose names could not be learned here, for a price said to be between $35,000,000 and $40,000,000. Glenn's part of the proceeds of the sale will be not less than $2,000,000, and Barnsdall will net a much larger sum than that out of the deal.

Glenn was the pioneer in Indian Territory development. Over 10 year ago he leased the entire Osage Reservation, consisting of about 1,500,000 acres. Senator Fisher, of New York, was interested with him. Later it became necessary to have a considerable sum of money to carry on the operations, and they interested T. N. Barnsdall.

Not only do they own the bulk of the oil production in that part of the West, but about all the gas. The gas output has been enormous, and Kansas City gets its supply from their wells. Local oil men say that Barnsdall backed the Western proposition stronger than any oil speculation he ever tackled. It is said that he was in to lose $15,000,000.

The deal is said to have been closed in Pittsburg yesterday, and that formal announcement will be made in Pittsburg within the next few days.

ICY WINDS

Nearly Killed the Mechanical Expert, Who, For Science, Rode on the Engine's Cylinders.

Bucyrus, Ohio, Feb. 19.—Helpless with cold an expert mechanical engineer was taken from a Pennsylvania engine yesterday, after having ridden above the cylinders of the engine from Ft. Wayne, in the interest of science. He was practically unprotected from the weather, and during the trip made frequent observations relative to the operations of the piston.

The Pennsylvania company has been making exhaustive tests of the engines now in the service on the road. To do this a windshield is erected above the cylinder and steam chest and behind this shield, with no other protection, the mechanical engineer rides at a mile a minute clip. The necessary instruments are at hand, and no matter what the condition of the weather or the speed of the train, he is supposed to maintain his position and make frequent observations.

The mechanical engineer never leaves his perilous position from the time he crawls up to his little box until he is relieved by another engineer.

MINER'S OFFICIALS

Secretly Taken From Denver to Idaho. The Charge.

Denver, Feb. 19.—Charles H. Moyer and William D. Haywood, president and secretary, respectively, of the Western Federation of Miners, and C. A. Pettibone, a former member of the executive board of that organization, who were arrested in this city on warrants charging them with complicity in the murder of former Governor Steunenberg of Idaho, were taken from their cells in the county jail at an early hour by an armed guard of 12 deputy sheriffs and placed on board a special train for Boise, Idaho.

Governor McDonald said: "I am surprised to hear that a special train was used to convey the officials of the Western Federation of Miners from Denver. I had no knowledge of a plan secretly to spirit the men out of town. Last Thursday morning Deputy Warden Mills of the Idaho penitentiary, who had arrived in Denver the day before, called on me at my office and presented the requisition papers for the arrest of the three men. Charges of complicity in the murder of former Governor Steunenburg were set forth. I spent all of that day as well as Friday and a part of Saturday investigating the charges against the federation and in the end I honored the papers."

Another Arrest.

Wallace, Idaho, Feb. 19.—Vincent St. John, president of the miners' union of Burke, Idaho, according to the statement of Sheriff Sutherland of Shoshone county, is now in the county jail at Wallace, Idaho. He was arrested on a telegraphic order from Boise.

A Test Will Tell

What Liquozone Can Do for You—and It Is Free.

You who are waiting—we ask you again to try Liquozone; to try it at our expense. You'll regret this delay when you learn what the product means to you.

Do as millions have done—stop doubting; give Liquozone a test. Then judge it by results. Germ diseases—and there are scores of them—call for a germicide. Those are the diseases to which Liquozone best applies. Don't cling blindly to old-time remedies, if you don't find them effective. Let us prove the power of the new.

What Liquozone Is.

The virtues of Liquozone are derived solely from gases. The formula is sent to each user. The process of making requires large apparatus, and from 8 to 14 days' time. It is directed by chemists of the highest class. The object is to so fix and combine the gases as to carry into the system a powerful tonic-germicide.

Contact with Liquozone kills any form of disease germ, because germs are of vegetable origin. Yet to the body Liquozone is not only harmless, but helpful in the extreme. That is its main distinction. Common germicides are poison when taken internally. That is why medicine has been so helpless in a germ disease. Liquozone is exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying; yet no disease germ can exist in it.

We purchased the American rights to Liquozone after thousands of tests had been made with it. Its power had been proved again and again, in the most difficult germ diseases. Then we offered to supply the first bottle free in every disease that required it. And over one million dollars have been spent to announce and fulfill this offer.

The result is that 11,000,000 bottles have been used, mostly in the past two years. Today there are countless cured ones, scattered everywhere, to tell what Liquozone has done.

But so many others need it that this offer is published still. In late years, science has traced scores of diseases to germ attacks. Old remedies do not apply to them. We wish to show those sick ones—at our cost—what Liquozone can do.

Where It Applies.

These are the diseases in which Liquozone has been most employed. In these it has earned its widest reputation. In all of these troubles we supply the first bottle free. And in all—no matter how difficult—we offer each user a two months' further test without the risk of a penny.

Fevers—Gall Stones	Throat Troubles

Also most forms of the following:

Kidney Troubles	Liver Troubles
Stomach Troubles	Women's Diseases

Fever, inflammation or catarrh—impure or poisoned blood—usually indicate a germ disease. In nervous debility Liquozone acts as a vitalizer, accomplishing remarkable results.

50c. Bottle Free.

If you need Liquozone, and have never tried it, please send us this coupon. We will then mail you an order on a local druggist for a full-size bottle, and will pay the druggist ourselves for it. This is our free gift, made to convince you; to let the product itself show you what it can do. In justice to yourself, please accept it today, for it places you under no obligations whatever.

Liquozone costs 50c. and $1.

One of the largest valentine parties was given at St. John's Hall, on south Main street, by the Sewing Society, when there were some five hundred guests present. The ladies of the society were dressed in colonial costumes. For those who cared for cards, pedro was the game, Mrs. Will Herring winning the ladies' prize, a placque of burned wood; Mr. J. Ryan received the gentleman's prize, a box of cigars. After the lunch of sandwiches, pickles, coffee and cake had been served, a cake-walk was announced, which was led by Mr. Cardosi and Mrs. Schwartz. Mrs. Brown won the cake. The affair proved such a thoroughly enjoyable one that the ladies will give a similar party on the 27th.

The South Side Commercial Club held another interesting meeting Friday night, and the members who were absent missed something of much interest to themselves. Plans are being carried forward to locate more factories in South Lima: but the club works in conjunction with the Progressive Association for the whole city. A concert will be given in the near future for the benefit of the Commercial club band, formerly the Richard's band, and it is hoped that South Lima people will liberally patronize the enterprise, and thus help to secure for South Lima a musical organization of merit, and materially aid the Commercial club in its efforts to do something for South Lima.

During the coming summer our music-loving people will be treated to Saturday evening concerts at the Kibby Corner band stand. This takes money, and by patronizing the concerts and entertainments now being planned, each and everybody will become interested, not only in the band and Commercial club, but in South Lima as a whole, and her future.

The surprise was complete and the entire party enjoyed a merry evening at games, music, dancing and supper. Mrs. Connor was presented with a beautiful set of dishes by the ladies present.

Taigny Anticipates Revolution.

Paris, Feb 20—M Taigny, the former French charge d'affaires at Caracas says that the unanimity of the diplomats in Venezuela against his expulsion was a great surprise to President Castro, who until the last moment had relied on the moral support of a certain power. M. Taigny is convinced that a revolutionary movement for the overthrow of President Castro is in preparation. He had been approached by several of the revolutionary leaders during his sojourn in Venezuela, but owing to his position as the representative of France he was obliged to hold aloof from politics.

Amusements

This remarkable farce comedy, "What Happened to Jones" known throughout the length and breadth of the civilized world, that has entertained more people and has made more people laugh than any other play in the past twenty years, will be seen at the Faurot Opera House this evening with the same attention to detail which characterized its original production. The cast has been selected, each and every member to fit his or her part, in fact there is not one member in the cast who has not appeared in one of the original companies. The management is proud to be able to furnish such a capable organization. The play, always popular, is playing to record business everywhere.

A laugh, a yell, a hurrah, a scream is the only way to describe the great success of W. A. Brady's musical comedy, "Girls Will Be Girls," with Al Leech and the Three Rosebuds who are at the head of this grand organization of players, which will appear at the Faurot Opera House on Wednesday night. We can recommend this great production as a sure cure for the blues, in fact it is the best medicine that any doctor could recommend his patients for any tired feeling, or case of dyspepsia, lumbago or any ailment that life is heir to. The comedy of "Girls Will Be Girls" is clear cut and refined, not allowing one dull moment to exist from the rise to the fall of the curtain. The dancing of the entire company is also a great feature The musical numbers are given with great tact and precision, and sung by people who possess young fresh and highly cultivated voices. Taken altogether the performance of 'Girls Will Be Girls' is both amusing and entertaining, possessing every element known to the word success.

Mrs Fiske will appear at Piqua on Feb. 21, when she will present "Leah Kleschna," the drama by C M S McLellan, that has proven the most popular play of her career In New York this strong drama ran for five months and it has been acted by Mrs. Fiske with equal success in most of the larger cities of the country as far west as San Francisco Not only Mrs Fiske but every member of the cast has shared in the praise it has received The Manhattan company, which is associated with Mrs Fiske in 'Leah Kleschna," is a permanent organization that is now in its second season. In it are John Mason, George Arliss, Frederick de Belleville, William B Mack, and other noted players There are fine opportunities for them all, for "Leah Kleschna" is unique among modern plays in the number of its important roles. The play is a modern drama of novel idea, unusual power and intense heart interest May's Opera House, Wednesday, Feb. 21.

The Lima Society Holds Its Initial

MEETING IN NEW QUARTERS LAST EVENING IN THE FAUROT BLOCK.

The Lima Theosophical Society was organized in this city in 1885 with a limited membership, and since that date has held its meetings at the homes of members of the society The membership has increased to such proportions that it became necessary to secure larger quarters and the society has leased rooms on the second floor of the Opera House block. Here regular meetings will be held on Sunday evening to which the public is invited Meetings for study will be held on Thursday evenings for the more advanced class and on Saturday afternoon for the beginners The only requirement for membership is that you believe in the brotherhood of man It is the belief of the members of this society that all religions are good and striving for the same end—the uplifting of humanity, hence there are no petty quarrels with people of any faith or denomination.

The meeting last night was one of great interest,

Is Only $3.25

The Management has purchased 2000 yearly subscriptions of the Madame Magazine and will practically give these away to NEWS readers who will subscribe for the DAILY NEWS for one year, the only requirement being 25 cents in advance to cover postage of Magazine

The excellent standard of the reading matter set by

at the beginning of the year, continues throughout the spring numbers of the magazine.

The March issue has for a cover design a study head by Harrison Fisher, that is pronounced the best piece of work that this very popular artist has yet accomplished.

The magazine opens with a study of New York City as a city of the world, a polyglot community that is made up of practically every nationality in the world. It is illustrated by some of the most remarkable photographs that have ever been taken. They show the vast crowds of people and cramped living quarters in the congested localities of Manhatan Island. The study has been made by Forest Morgan, a well-known contributor to this periodical.

The March issue has a number of strong fiction stories with many attractive illustrations by the leading artists of the country. Martha S. Bensley contributes an Italian story "Romance Versus Reality."

A striking feature of the March issue is Meredith Newcom Stiles's study of the immigrant question from the immigrant's sido. He brings the immigrant to Ellis Island, which he calls "The Isle of Tears." The attiude of the writer is new and much more sympathetic than the usual run of articles that appear on this subject. The article is illustrated by many striking photographs.

In the March issue MADAME has begun a new department that is designed to appeal strictly to club women. On account of many inquiries that sought information in regard to club meetings and discussions of subjects at women's clubs, it was thought to be a good move to establish a department that afforded information of just this sort. Mary I. Wood, Chairman of the Bureau of Information of the General Federation of Women's Clubs has undertaken the management of this department. On account of her position, she is admirably fitted to handle such a department. She will from month to month discuss the important maters that are interesting Club Women. She will tell of what club women are accomplishing and of what the club as an organization is doing directly. She will suggest club programs and suitable subjects for study. In this way it is hoped that the magazine will be of great assistance to club women.

The March number concluded with the usual Story Whisket, and the usual household departments and fashions.

Madame is a woman's magazine. It's subscription price is ONE DOLLAR per year.

Madame is the latest success in the magazine field, having already reached the front rank. The million members of the National Council of Women unanimously endorsed it as their Official Organ, an honor never before conferred on any magazine. It is full of interesting stories, articles of art, music, literature and beautiful pictures galore. Madame brings a monthly message of culture into a quarter of a million of American homes and reflects the mental development of the last decade as no other woman's magazine will do. It prints not one word which the fairest daughter of any household cannot read.

This unheard of price is bonafide--no ifs or ands about it. What better investment can there be? The News is the Best Newspaper in the City at any Price and feels that it will be your choice in the test of comparison with any other daily newspaper.

Don't cast this aside, a similar proposition has never been made before by any daily newspaper, and perhaps never will be. Read it! Study it! Then send us your subscription or hand this paper to a friend.

ELECTRIC ENERGY

This Wonderful Power Subject for Sermon by Mr. Anderson.

If Electric Waves Can Influence a Little Piece of Magnetized Steel Cannot the Spirit of God Influence the Sensitive Human Soul.

Below is the third in the series of scientific sermons preached by Rev. George Wood Anderson.

Some of the most fascinating chapters of history are those describing the men who went forward on great errands, sustained and guided by a sublime faith. No fiction is half so absorbing as the story of Columbus plowing through unknown waters to discover a continent; or Hudson pressing on amid Artic ices searching a northwest passage; or Stanley tramping through thicket and jungle in search of a long lost friend. Hearts beat with emotion and eyes flash with tears as we watch them, the one with hand shaded eyes looking for a continent his faith taught him was lying just beyond; the other, peering amid icebergs for an open way his faith taught him was surely there; the other peering amid the bushes for some trace of the man whom his faith said was not far away.

God Guided Their Lives.

But more fascinating still are the lives of those who journeyed on relying entirely upon God for strength and guidance. Such an one was Abraham. His soul, as responsive to Divine influences as a sensitive plate is to light, heard a command to journey into unknown realms. Obedient he spent his life ever journeying onward, from one camping place to another, through plains and across rivers, amidst wild beasts and savage tribes, toward a city where his faith taught him, his children and his childrens' children should abide forever. Such an one was Moses. Having heard the voice of God he said: "I can trust Him to guide me that I wander not aimlessly, and to sustain me that I fall not by the wayside." Going onward he found every pathway traced by divine fingers and his heart so filled with courage that he weakened not in the presence of Pharaoh, the storm tossed sea, or the angry mob. Such an one was Paul. Small in body and weak of eyes, yet sustained and guided by the unseen One who spoke to him on the Damascus highway he was able to go through all lands and across all waters preaching the gospel of the Son of God. From the day that Christ sent His disciples to preach the gospel, there has never been a consecrated preacher whose history has not been made most fascinating by the miraculous leadings and deliverances of a Divine Hand. Behold Peter in the dead of night unshackled from the guards and led from the prison! Behold Philip, led to the highway in just the right moment to stop the chariot and send the gospel to the royal households of Egypt! Behold Livingston pressing through dangers of the plain, and sea and jungle thicket that he might win a whole continent to God. The unseen One who speaks to the heart can give of His power to guide and to sustain as the fascinating lives of a thousand men we might mention testifies.

The Wonderful Soul.

Do you say that these are the teachings of a mystic and seem strange? True they are the teachings of a mystic, and a mysticism of the highest type, but the thought that God can give guidance is no more strange to me than that the unseen electric energy should give guidance to mens' feet when lost in the desert, or to men's ships when sailing the storm swept seas. You are all familiar with the nature of a compass. Enclosed in a case is a magnetized needle delicately balanced on a very fine point. As in all magnetic bodies the positive poles of the atoms all point one way, while the negative poles of the atoms point in the opposite direction of the needle. The currents that are all the time sweeping about the globe travel from north to south unless disturbed by occasional counter electric currents To these currents all magnetic bodies respond and the needle of the compass being delicately balanced, at once swings in line with them as the weather vane adjusts itself to the winds The positive poles never failing to point to the north Thus through the compass, by simply noticing the position of the needle, man uses the unseen magnetic energy to guide his way through unknown jungles and over uncrossed seas. If electric waves can influence a little piece of magnetized steel does it not seem possible for the Spirit of Almighty God to influence the human soul, which is a thousand times more sensative? Think what a wonderful piece of workmanship the soul it. So delicately strung that the faintest touch of joy will awaken melodies that enrapture; that the slightest touch of sorrow will cause the deepest groans and moans of grief. So marvelously constructed that the presence of good causes it to pulsate with joy, or the presence of evil will cause it to tremble with fright. So sensative that it is influenced by music, the modulations of the voice, the blending of colors in pictures, graceful curves in statuary, the pillar and arches in architecture, the laughter of books, the silence of the forests, the ruggedness of the hills, the drifting clouds, and the star strewn sky. Wonderful is the delicacy and sensativeness of the soul! If electrical waves can influence common steel to guide man through the forests cannot the great unseen God influence as delicate and responsive an instrument as the soul, so as to guide mankind that they err not from righteous paths, or become lost in desert wilds? If so, is it not as reasonable that man could understand these guidings as easily as he reads the magnetic message in the movements of the compass needle?

The Divine the Highest Potential.

That God should give power to man is not strange when you look at the matter from a scientific standpoint and notice the tendencies of electrical power. When the electrical engineer wishes to compare electrical conditions he rerers to their potential. That which contains the greatest amount of electricity according to its size, is said to be of the higher potential. That which contains the lesser amount, considering its size, is said to be of the lower potential. Now the tendency is for the higher potential to be all the time seeking to flow into that of the lower potential until both have been brought to equal potential, just as water seeks to run from a higher to a lower level. It is this tendency that causes the lightning A large quantity of positive electricity in seeking a lower potential finds it in an equal amount of negative electricity, and the force with which they meet causes the peal of thunder that deafens and the flash of lightning that bewilders. It is this tendency that sends the electricity through the wires above our city streets,—it is rushing from the dynamo of high potential seeking something of a lower potential that it may enter. It is ready for any useful service. Tap the wire and attach an incandescent of zero potential and immediately the electricity will leap from the wire to it and cause it to flash with light. Attach a trolly car to the wire and immediately all the energy of the power house is at its service, pushing it through city streets and up mountain grades. That the tendency of electricity is always for the stronger to serve the weaker is proven by every spark from Leyden jar and flash of lightning. The Bible teaches that the tendency of electricity is only an illustration of the tendencies of the unseen God. Of all energy the Divine is of the highest potential, and ever more, without ceasing, that power is seeking to enter into the human that it may be lifted to a higher and still higher potential until after a while, as Paul says, it might be "filled with all the fulness of God." Through every avenue of human thought and endeavor this power is surging and all that man needs to do is to reach up and bring it to himself

A Power More Than Human.

In this reception of power man in spiritual matters, has the advantage of the scientist with electrical power. It is now known that all electrical energy comes direct from the sun If every particle of this power could be saved each square foot would furnish enough to lift 3,306 pounds twelve inches every minute. Enough power falls upon the state of New York to run all the machinery and traffic of the entire world. But man gets very little of that power. Some is used in the lifting of vapors, and warming the atmosphere, but the most of it is radiated into space and dissipated. All we receive is gotten in an indirect manner. A small portion of this energy stores itself away in wood and coal. This we change into heat for an engine. This heat is changed into mechanical energy, and the mechanical energy is transformed into electrical energy. This means a great waste. Out of our great inheritance we save but a few pennies. The question for the scientist to solve tomorrow is how to procure this power direct from the sunbeam and thus, having put the fires out of all furnaces, without smoke or ashes, or loss of power, will turn the spindles of factories and trains. He whom the scientific world is now looking for to solve this problem, the Bible teaches has come in the spiritual world. Having lived in the heavens He knew all the power of the God-head. Coming to earth He brought that power down among the sons and daughters of men. One word from His lips freed men from their sins; one touch of His garments brought health to the sick; one touch of His fingers resurrected the dead. He was God made manifest in the flesh, and His mission was to teach men that there need be no loss of spiritual power. By living as he lived, pure and sinless, each man may receive for himself, without priest or prophet, a power that is more than human. That experiment has been tried again and again, and the power has always come and in a measure out of all proportion to the object into which it came. To illustrate. Above yon track leading up Mount Ida is a small wire no larger than your little finger. So small is it, that of its own strength, it could hardly pull a single car up the steep grade. Yet that wire is the conductor for enough energy to pull, not only one car, but a hundred cars up that steep incline. The power possessed is out of all proportion to its size. So with Divinely filled men. Their power for work and endurance has always been out of proportion to their size. Look at John Wesley! Weak in body, delicate, unpretentious and unpromising, and yet weilding an unmeasured force. Green, the English historian, says that it was his revivals that fashioned Germany, England and America—the three Saxon-Protestant nations that rule the world. His theology has changed the theology of all churches, and his hymns have enriched all languages. The power was out of all proportion to the man. The same thing can be said of Lincoln, Livingston and Savonarola. This, then is the teaching of the Bible, Divine guidance and Divine power. "The Lord shall guide thee continually." "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost has come upon you."

Cannot Serve God and Mammon.

But you say, "If God's Spirit is always ready to guide man as the electricity gives constancy to the needle of the compass, and Divine power is ever falling like sunshine on the open plains, why are we not always led and filled with power?" The reasons are very clear. No compass is true that is near a magnet or counter-attraction. A nail, by influencing a compass once sent a ship upon the rocks. To be true, the compass must be encased. Do you not understand why Christ demands that His followers be separated from the world? You can not feel the influences of God's spirit so long as the riches and pleasures of the world draw upon your affections. "You cannot serve God and Mammon."

Must Be Separated From the World.

To keep Divine power the same fact is true. Two men stand near a static machine. The same current touches both. The one man is filled with power. It reveals itself in the moving of his hair, and in the spark that leaps from his body to your extended hand He is filled with all the influence of a high potential. The other man is no more affected than though he were beyond the current's reach. What is the difference between the men? One is standing upon a plate of glass, is separated from the earth, stores up the energy received, and is filled with power. The other man is standing upon the floor, the current passes to the ground, and is forever lost. Do you not see why Christ demanded that His desciples be separated from the world? To be filled with power no man dare waste his energy on earthly things.

Keep Your Heart Pure.

Never have I seen the necessity of a sinless life as I have while preparing these sermons. Every electrical law demands absolute obedience. Then, I bid you forsake your sins, receive Divine guidance and say with David: "He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness." Then will you receive Divine power, and say with Paul: "I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me." Keep your heart sensitive as the needle of the compass; keep your heart open in purity to God, then shall He lead you forth in the right way, and your feet shall never grow weary. "The Lord shall guide thee continually." "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you."

DEPRESSION COVERS OIL FIELDS,

With Indications That It Will Continue--Deep-Sand Searches Have Been Failures.

The weather has been against the completion of wells throughout the high-grade oil districts east of the Mississipi during the past week, and those which have been brought in have added little to the character of any of the fields.

There were fewer wells drilled, more failures resulting and less production secured during the past week in the five high-grade fields of the Central West, the work being divided as follows:

Field.	Wells Comp.	Prod. Brls.	Dry Holes.
Northwestern Ohio	33	634	7
Indiana	34	1,069	8
Southeastern Ohio	23	160	9
West Virginia	34	524	15
Kentucky	7	140	1
Totals	131	2,527	35
Last week	141	3,260	36

December product, 738 barrels.

Conditions in general throughout the petroleum fields of the United States are indicative of a year of general depression. The drill in the trans-Mississipi fields, which has been the great bearish element of the trade during the past two years, is now slowly ceasing its work, while the Standard is making no efforts whatever to increase its facilities for handling the oil ready for the market in those fields. The boom in the Casey, (Ill.) fields is still on, and some good wells are being brought in, but the Standard here has everything under its own control, and is setting up its own markets. Operations in that field are probably more active than in any other because it is all shallow sand drilling, the least expensive in any field in the country. The tests in the deep sands of Ohio, northeast and northwest, have so far proved utter failures, while the work in West Virginia's deep sands has almost been abandoned. Pipe-line reports show the excessive drains which are resulting from this inactivity, but the great octopus further shows it does not want the oil, by keeping prices where the drill will not start.

In the Northwestern Ohio end of the Trenton rock districts during the past week every effort to extend territory or to bring in new counties into the oil belt, proved a failure. Wells in Logan and Ashland counties proved dusters, and no well worthy the name of gusher was drilled during the week. The average for the Ohio wells dropped to less than 20 barrels for initial production.

While the Indiana field makes a slightly better showing for the week than has been recorded during the present month, operations in this state have declined to the minimum while the gusher territory temporarily at least, seems exhausted. The small number of wells being drilled in the deep sand districts largely accounts for the heavy decline in production, while in the other districts but light pumpers have been the rule. Wells for the week averaged far above the preceding period while failures were on a parity, four less wells appearing in the totals There are fewer wells drilling in this field than for the past five years while the "wild-catter" has almost entirely disappeared.

The work in the Southeastern Ohio field was featureless during the week. The Monroe county field is the only one being watched by the trade, and in this the prospects seem bright for a lucrative extension to the development area, and this field is furnishing the bulk of the production of the Southeastern Districts Wells for the past week dropped to the lowest average of seven barrels the lowest point in years.

In the West Virginia districts important tests are under way in Ritchie and Calhoun counties, but the work of the week was most disappointing. Good wells, without gushers were found in Monroe and Calhoun, and the drilling is confined almost exclusively to the shallow sand fields of the state. Wells for the week averaged but a fraction better than 15 barrels, and like Southwestern Ohio, proved losses to the operators.

In the Kentucky districts there was a dull week generally with no gushers and a drop in the average wells from 30 barrels down to 20 Bath county contributed one fair pumper, but efforts to extend the field are not optimistic. The work in Wolfe and Wayne counties is being diminished, and these are the only two counties on which reliability can be placed.

Moroccan Conference.

Algeciras, Spain, Feb. 19.—The conference on Moroccan affairs does not promise immediate results. The discussion of the most difficult question before the conference, the policing of Morocco, will proceed this week. The exchange of notes which has taken place between France and Germany leads to the belief that both countries are desirous of reaching an amicable adjustment of the questions involved.

Crew Picked Up at Sea.

Honolulu, Feb 19.—The United States transport Buford arrived from Manila with 37 Japanese, who were picked up from the wreck of the bark entine Tunamoto February 7. When the Buford met the Tunamoto she was dismasted and without provisions. The barkentine was en route from Tokio to Marcus island. She was abandoned by her crew who were taken aboard the Buford.

Will Resign.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 19.—George L. Campen, water commissioner for the Isthmian canal zone, has announced to his friends in this city his intention of resigning his position. He will sail for home from Colon February 20.

Sick Senators.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Senator Tillman, who has been ill with a severe cold, is better. He hopes to be able to attend the session of the senate Tuesday. Senator Mallory of Florida, who also has been ill, is better.

Smashed the Meeting.

Warsaw, Feb. 19.—In pursuance of the campaign of interference with the elections to the National assembly, a band of thirty Social revolutionaries invaded a political meeting in the city hall and broke it up by shouting, firing revolvers and smashing the furniture The thousand electors present fled in panic.

Irrigated Farms in the Little Empire on the Western Slope.

Profitable Farm Lands are scattered all along the line of the DENVER & RIO GRANDE RAILROAD.

"Scenic Line of the World."

In the valleys of the Grand, Gunnison, North Fork and Roaring Fork Rivers, and in the San Luis and Uncompahgre Valleys of Colorado, and the Farmington District of New Mexico, farming, stock raising and fruit growing are carried on in a way that is a revelation to the farmer in the east.

For those who desire to make new homes, there is no other region that offers more and better advantages than Western Colorado, a land of blue skies and sunshine, with a temperate and even climate, where the erstwhile desert needs but to be tilled and watered in order to verily "Blossom as a Roso." Several Illustrated publications, giving valuable information in regard to the agricultural, horticultural and live stock interests of this great western section, have been prepared by the DENVER & RIO GRANDE RAILROAD, and can be obtained by addressing Findlay, Feb. 18.—"Take up thy bed and walk" was the command given by Dr J B. Hubbard, faith curist, of Lima, to Miss Emma Baker, a 14-year-old crippled girl, a few days ago.

Emma had been, up to the age of 11 years, a healthy, normal child. One summer evening the family was notified that the father and husband, Joseph Baker, had met a tragic death in the woods while hunting squirrels The shock attending the tragic death of her father caused the girl to become bedfast with an ailment thought by physicians to be nervous prostration

The faith curist began his strange labors three weeks ago. He and Emma, it is said, were almost constantly in prayer and when the disease was forced to yield the girl walked about and played with her friends.

She experiences no pain and is rapidly gaining strength. Neighbors of the Baker family pronounce the assertion of the family to be genuine and say that the change manifested came about very suddenly.

BUNCO MEN ORGANIZED.

ALLEN COUNTY SHERIFF BELIEVES HE HAS FOUND "GREEN GOODS" SOCIETY.

The arrest here a few days ago of John Stratton, caught by the sheriff at the point of a revolver near Alger, Hardin county, is believed to have uncovered a secret society which has been working various counties of Ohio and Indiana in the "green goods" game for several months.

Stratton's case was being investigated, and he was summoned to appear before the grand jury when he jumped the city. He was then indicted, and since his arrest many persons have been bringing in evidence and telling of his attempted and some successful sales of counterfeit money.

In the data gathered is a secret agreement and oath signed by Stratton which declares him to be a fifth degree member of a secret society organized to dispose of spurious money.

Government detectives are aiding the prosecutor and are weaving a web which it is said will result in the arrest of a half dozen lesser accomplices in Anglaize, Mercer, Hardin and Allen counties.

WELL DESERVED

The Praise That Comes From Thankful Lima People.

One kidney remedy never fails.
Lima people rely upon it.
That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills.

Lima testimony proves it always reliable.

James Carter, sewer and drainage contractor, of 1203 Allentown road, Lima, Ohio, says: "For five years past I have been free from every symptoms of kidney trouble. This is only since I used Doan's Kidney Pills. I made a statement five years ago telling of my case and recommending this remedy, and for the benefit of other sufferers you may repeat it now."

The statement made by Mr. Carter in October, 1898, was as follows: "I suffered from kidney trouble for seven or eight years, and during that time had professional treatment, used a great many remedies, and in place of getting better, I gradually grew worse until the secretions from the kidneys became distressing and annoying and deposited a lime-like sediment. There was a constant soreness and stiffness through the back, making it very painful for me to stoop or lift. I could not rest well at nights and arose in the morning feeling even worse and more tired than when I went to bed the night before. Being strongly advised to use Doan's Kidney Pills I got them at Melville's Drug Store. I commenced to feel better in a short time and improved steadily until the trouble was gone. I never had any other medicine that gave me such perfect satisfaction."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

FIRST FATAL COLLISION

On the Western Ohio Railroad Occurred This Morning

Between a Limited Train and an Express Car at a Siding

NEAR ANNA—M. STEIN, CHIEF CLERK OF THE FREIGHT DEPARTMENT

WITH HEADQUARTERS IN THIS CITY, MET INSTANT DEATH—HAD SPENT SUNDAY WITH HIS MOTHER AT PIQUA—THREE OTHER PASSENGERS FROM LIMA WERE ON THE CAR.

A dense fog this morning was the cause of a fatal accident on the Western Ohio railroad at the siding just this side of Anna at seven o'clock. It was the first fatal accident in the way of a collision since the road was built.

The north-bound limited car, due in this city at eight o'clock, in charge of Motorman Mat Simpson and Conductor Stoutenborough, had stopped at the first siding north of Anna, and both the conductor and motorman were on top of the car fixing the trolley when the north-bound express in charge of Motorman Morgan and Conductor Emerick crashed into the car.

On the limited car were J. Scott Walker, of Troy, two Lima people and M. Stein, chief of the freight department of the road, with headquarters in this city. Mr. Stein, who is single and about 24 years of age was returning to Lima from his home in Piqua where he had spent Sunday with his mother. He was seated in the smoking apartment in the rear end of the car when the collision occurred and met instant death. Deceased has been in the employ of the company ever since the line was opened between Sidney and Piqua and was one of the best men in the service. Since coming to Lima he has won many friends, and the announcement of his untimely death this morning caused many heartaches among his old associates.

The accident happened on a straight track and the motorman of the express car did not discover the danger ahead in time to slacken the speed of his car.

While both cars were badly damaged the accident did not delay traffic to any extent.

The remains of the unfortunate young man were taken to the home of his heart-broken mother in Piqua.

On the 13th day of this month Mr. Stein took out a $1,000 policy with C. E. Willis, of this city, in favor of his mother and at the time he remarked about that superstitious "13."

The Lima people on the car were Benton W. Burley, of 543 north McDonald street, Edna Smiley, a school teacher, who boards at 613 west Wayne street.

They were only slightly scratched and were at work as usual today.

DINED AND WINED

Retiring Official of the Western Ohio

HONORED AT A BANQUET AT THE LIMA HOUSE SATURDAY NIGHT.

FORTY-EIGHT OF THE FRIENDS OF THIS POPULAR COUPLE WERE PRESENT TO SAY FAREWELL.

MANY NOTABLES IN THE TRACTION WORLD WERE GATHERED ABOUT THE FESTAL BOARD.

One of the happiest affairs of the year was the banquet given at the Lima House Saturday evening by the intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Merrill, twenty-four couple being gathered about the festal board to enjoy the good things of the evening and to say the farewells to one of Lima's most popular young men. As has been stated in this paper, Mr. Merrill, after a continued service with the Western Ohio railroad since its construction, as auditor, will retire from the services of that company to take up more responsible work as permanent secretary of the Central Electric Association, composed of all the Ohio and Indiana electric lines, with headquarters at Indianapolis.

The dinner was a six-course affair and comprised the following menu:

Blue Points,
Celery, Wafers,
Cream of Tomato,
Radishes, Olives,
Planked White Fish,
Sliced Cucumbers, Claret,
Roast Young Turkey, Stuffed,
Sweet Potatoes, Glace, Green Peas,
Spinach with Egg.
Hot Rolls,
Fresh Lobster Salad.
Cheese Sandwiches,
Ice Cream, Small Cakes,
Roquefort Cheese,
Toasted Bents, Water Crackers,
Coffee.

Mr. B. F. Connelly, the clever young gentleman who officiates as auditor of the Lima & Toledo Railway company, was chosen as toastmaster and well he performed the functions at the head of the table.

The following toasts were responded to:

"Our Honored Guest"—Response by President F. B. Carpenter, Western Ohio.

"Progress and Success of Electric Railway Work of Our Guest"—J. A. Bendure, General Manager Lima City Railways.

"Friendships of the Association"—A. W. Anderson, Dayton and Lima Traction companies.

"The Great Field and Mission of Electricity"—F. T. Campbell, of Daily Press

Business, Friendship and the Work of Our Guest"—E. C. Spring of Dayton.

Mr Connelly, a close friend of Mr Merrill, concluded the program of oratory, when the guest of the evening was called to account and responded as follows:

The compliments that have been paid me here tonight place me in a position whereby words fail me, or could I bring to mind words even they would still fail to express to you the feelings uppermost in my thoughts.

One of the unpleasant features of a railroad servant's life is the fact that he is here today and gone tomorrow, forming associates and friends only to sever them with each succeeding change; yet leaving in our memory a page which all time cannot efface.

Meeting as railroad men do from time to time, it is seldom we have with us the ladies, and their presence here this evening I assure you, adds further brilliancy to the splendor of the occasion.

Your mere presence here tonight proves to us that in departing we leave behind friends who have proven themselves to be friends of the past and which we trust may prove friends of the future And whatever changes may come to us in the coming months, we feel that the memory of the past two seemingly short years, can but become a setting of happenings of the future, be they brilliant with success or be dimmed by adversity.

We feel that we go from your midst with your best wishes and good will for our future, and I assure you that we leave with you our best thoughts only for your personal welfare, and Lima's progress and prosperity.

Those who enjoyed the happy affair were:

E. C. Spring and wife, West Milton, O.
